

8. But the South African's reported injury breakdowns didn't help his cause as he just lost his 12 IPL matches in the last three seasons.

The South African fast bowler, who is representing Quetta Gladiators in the Pakistan Super League 6, said he "Whenever, when I go something like the IPL, that gets forgotten and the main topic is how much money did you go for in this IPL? That's just not being brutally honest. I wanted to stay away from that and really put more emphasis on playing and bringing good vibes to good guys and would have been really good for us," he said.

"Hopefully we can make a comeback in the upcoming games," Steyn also described hitting West Indian Chris Gayle as "a bit of a break", whereas Nottingham bats in "Good" of T20 format.

can win, we're physically strong and we're getting players back. There's a lot of time left to keep fighting in La Liga." Barcelona kept their own resurgence going on Saturday by overcoming Sevilla and now sit level on points with Real, having also played one game fewer than the leaders.
